The Honorable Richard G. Andrews
U.S. District Court of the District of Delaware
844 N. King Street, Rm. 4209, Unit 18

RE: *Delaware State Sportsmen's Association, Inc., et al. v. Delaware
Department of Safety and Homeland Security, et al.*
Dist. Ct. Case No. 1-22-cv-00951
Dist. Ct. Case No. 1-22-cv-01500
Dist. Ct. Case No. 1-23-cv-00033

Dear Judge Andrews:

This is the joint status report in these consolidated matters requested by Your Honor via oral order entered on October 25, 2024. The petition for writ of certiorari in S. Ct. Case No. 24-309 was denied by the U.S. Supreme Court on January 13, 2025.

There are presently two cases before the Supreme Court still awaiting the grant or denial of petitions for writs of certiorari (Snope v. Brown, No. 24-203; Ocean State Tactical, LLC v. Rhode Island, No. 24-131) which the plaintiffs here believe are likely to bear upon the issues in these proceedings should the Supreme Court agree to hear them. The Snope case, in which the trial court granted defendants' motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim, involves a challenge to Maryland's ban on "assault weapons." The Ocean State Tactical case, in which the trial court denied a preliminary injunction, involves a challenge to Rhode Island's ban on "large capacity magazines."

In light of the foregoing, the plaintiffs in these consolidated cases suggest that it makes sense to see whether the Supreme Court agrees to hear the Snope and/or Ocean State Tactical cases this term. Plaintiffs therefore respectfully request that the parties be permitted to provide a further status report on February 14, 2025, which allows for an additional Supreme Court conference day in the interim and beyond which any grant of certiorari almost certainly would be for next term. The defendants do not oppose plaintiffs' request.

We are available at the Court's convenience should Your Honor have any questions or concerns.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Bradley P. Lehman
